

Conseil européen pour les langues / European Language Council (CEL/ELC)

Special Interest Group (SIG) on Assessment and multilingual competence

The Board of the CEL/ELC has decided to convene a number of Special Interest Groups (SIGs) designed to address new issues and challenges in the area of languages arising from changes in European higher education and in non-academic environments. The SIGs will be open to specialists from CEL/ELC member institutions and organisations as well as to representatives of other pertinent organisations and to individual specialists. One of the SIGs envisaged will be devoted to Assessment and multilingual competence; it will be chaired by Brigitte Forster Vosicki, University of Lausanne, Switzerland and Anne Räsänen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Assessment and multilingual competence

Special Interest Group (SIG) being convened by the Conseil européen pour les langues / European Language Council
(CEL/ELC)

I, the undersigned, hereby declare my interest in becoming a member of the CEL/ELC Special Interest Group (SIG) on Assessment and multilingual competence.

Name:

University / organisation (name in original language and in English):

Postal business address:

Website of the institution / organisation:

My position in this university / organisation:

E-mail address:

Please indicate your expertise and experience regarding the theme to be addressed by the SIG:

I understand that my institution / organisation or I myself will have to meet all travel and accommodation / subsistence costs incurred in connection with SIG meetings, workshops, etc.

Place:

Date:

Signature:

Please sign and send this form before 31 March 2010 to Brigitte Forster Vosicki:
Brigitte.ForsterVosicki@unil.ch